

The “Internet is sooo dangerous” - video

| | |
|-------------------------------|--|
| Aim | To create awareness of the dangers of the internet |
| Duration | - |
| Number of participants | any |
| Difficulty | Demanding in terms of time and resources as the activity involves video production |
| Conditions | The activity might take some time depending on how long it takes for the participants' creativity to get going. Furthermore, it involves video production. Suitable for groups |
| Material | Smartphone, camera, cutting programme (e.g. on YouTube) |
| Preparation | - |

Description

The group as a whole or individual participants create short videos demonstrating potential dangers of the internet in a drastic way. They may and should exaggerate! According to the age and skills of the participants, different topics and warnings will come up.

Depending on the quality of the videos, it might make sense to publish them to YouTube. Possibly they will only be presented in the group.

| | |
|---------------|---|
| Source | OIAT/Saferinternet.at |
| Link | http://peerbox.at/?p=341 |